The material on this website was reproduced for research and information purposes only.

The images contained therein have been sourced from local people who have given their permission for the use of the images in Lambley Historical Society publications and on the Lambley Historical Society website. Care has been taken to identify (where possible) their original source. Lambley Historical Society does not sell or license any of these images.

It is our policy to immediately remove, upon first notification and identification, any specific image displayed on this World Wide Web site represented to be owned or copyrighted by other parties for which we do not have permission. Should you, or your organization, possess the copyright to any such files and be able to prove such a claim, please contact the webmaster at your earliest convenience. Use of this material is not intended as a copyright infringement on any photographer or any other entity's copyrighted material. If you hold copyright to any material contained on this site and wish it's removal or its recognition, please contact the webmaster. Provide legal proof of your right to demand removal. If verified, material will be removed immediately or the owner given recognition on this site.
